Welcome to 73 Waterloo

Experience the sublime blend of elegance and charm at 73 Waterloo, a historic Grade II sanctuary nestled within the historic St John's Church, in the heart of Waterloo, a stone's throw from London's Southbank. Immerse yourself in our captivating indoor and outdoor bookable spaces, meticulously designed to transform your dream event into reality. Imagine the grandeur of our soaring nave as the enchanting backdrop to your sophisticated awards dinner or trade show.

Did you know? By choosing 73 Waterloo, you're not just booking a striking, characterful venue, you're also supporting 'The Bridge at Waterloo', a secular charity founded by the church providing vital community services, English language support and creative activities for people seeking sanctuary or experiencing homelessness in the UK.
